

Leadership, policy and change specialisation course map

Back to Postgraduate specialisation pathways

For students commencing in 2010

How complete and relevant is this course information?

The following course information is provided in addition to the official Monash Handbook entry for this course and is subject to change.

Students who commenced their studies prior to 2010 should check their course requirements in the Archived handbook for the relevant year, or contact their Course/Pathway Adviser.

This pathway is designed to meet the needs and interests of leaders and managers of educational institutions, teachers, academics and personnel working in a variety of human service organisations who exercise formal or informal leadership responsibilities for the delivery of educational and related services. The pathway gives an understanding of new governance relations; policymaking; and restructured organisational processes and imperatives in the workplace including new concepts of leadership. It also covers effective functioning and design of organisations, team-based approaches to work tasks, mechanisms for assuring quality of work output, accountability, appraisal systems, and ongoing learning.
